Film Screening: Woman in the Mirror

Thursday, February 2, 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Join us for a film screening of Woman in the Mirror, directed by Tatyana Bronstein.

Woman in the Mirror is a story of a strong woman, a ballerina, who defected from the Soviet Union because of antisemitism and lack of artistic and personal freedom. This is the story of her transition to the American ballet stage that led, after a 25-year career, to a new role as a teacher, and to new challenges as she struggles to adapt to the educational styles of American ballet. The documentary also takes an insightful look into the lives of the students as they struggle with the challenges such as physical and emotional stress of intense ballet training, anxiety and clinical depression, and family breakup.

Over the course of three decades in journalism, Goodman has covered some of the most momentous economic transformations and upheavals – the global financial crisis of 2008 and the Great Recession, as the Times' New York-based national economic correspondent; the emergence of China into a global superpower as the Shanghai bureau chief for The Washington Post; and the dot-com bubble as a technology reporter for the Post, based in Washington.
