- Central Square City Lots Study – Project Introduction and Update

The City of Cambridge Community Development Department, in collaboration with other city departments and the Central Square community, is leading a municipal property needs assessment and planning study for city-owned properties in Central Square. This project will support the City to best use its own assets to realize community goals and support City operations.

The Community Development Department will be presenting the scope of the Central Square City Lots study, preliminary site assessments of city-owned properties, and public feedback received from its early-stage public engagement process.
