

Public Workshop

AGENDA

Cambridge Climate Change Vulnerability Assessment
January 29, 2014. 6:00 – 8:30 pm

Ballroom, Senior Center
806 Mass. Ave, Cambridge

---

Meeting Goals:

1. Introduce the Climate Change Vulnerability Assessment process
2. Share findings to date (existing conditions, climate projections, and outreach findings)
3. Gather input on anticipated community impacts to include in the assessment

5:45 Arrival

6:00 Welcome & Meeting Overview

Welcome and introduction – John Bolduc (Cambridge Community Development Department), Lisa Dickson (Kleinfelder), Ona Ferguson (Consensus Building Institute)

6:20 Project Intent and Purpose

The importance of this assessment - Owen O’Riordan (Cambridge Department of Public Works), Sam Lipson (Cambridge Public Health) and Brian Murphy (Cambridge Community Development Department)

6:40 Overview of Work to Date

Description of the public process carried out in 2013 and development of existing conditions and climate projections, with question and answer period – John Bolduc, Lisa Dickson and Nathalie Beauvais (Kleinfelder)

7:10 Discussion of Community Impacts

Participants will work in small groups to share their thoughts on how possible climate change impacts might affect their daily lives.

8:15 Overview of Next Steps

Review of next steps and next meetings.

8:30 Adjourn