EVENTS at the CAMBRIDGE PUBLIC LIBRARY

CELEBRATION

Jukebox First 25: Celebrating the First 25 Stories

IN-PERSON

Tuesday, July 12, 5:30-7 p.m.

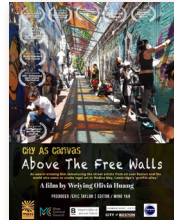

📍 Main Library

Join us to celebrate the release of the first 25 Jukebox stories! These stories, told by members of the Cambridge community, will be released online first, and, when the Cambridge Foundry opens in September, folks will have the opportunity to play the stories on the jukebox itself! Commissioned for the Cambridge Foundry through the City of Cambridge percent-for-art program by the Cambridge Arts Council, Jukebox is a public art project created by artist Elisa H. Hamilton.

FILM SCREENING

City As Canvas: Above the Free Walls IN-PERSON

Tuesday, July 12, 6-7:30 p.m.

📍 Program Room, Valente Branch

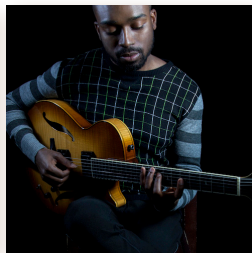

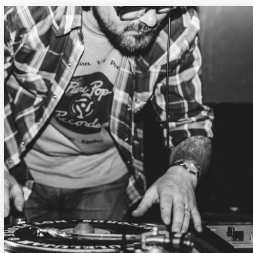

City As Canvas: Above the Free Walls is an award-winning documentary introducing the artists who create Cambridge's "Graffiti Alley."

The film features personal, in-depth interviews with numerous artists. Following the screening, there will be Q&A with the director, Weiyang

Olivia Huang, and a special guest artist to discuss the making of the film, public art, and the street art community.

PARK SOUNDS

Soulelujah and Albino Mbie Trio IN-PERSON

Wednesday, July 13, 6-7:30 p.m.

📍 Joan Lorentz Park, Main Library

Bring a blanket or chair and join us for an evening of Park Sounds! The strictly vinyl party known as Soulelujah started in 2003 in Central Square. Join resident DJ Johnny Stevens as he brings the best in known and unknown Soul, Funk, and R&B. Albino Mbie is an award winning musician from Mozambique. His music incorporates his experiences from Mozambique, the U.S., and around the world, combining rhythmic patterns and musical concepts to create a unique Afro-Pop and Moz-Jazz sound. In the event of inclement weather, this program will be held in the Lecture Hall.

All Library Locations will be closed Monday, July 4 for Independence Day.

COLLINS BRANCH

Wednesday Open House IN-PERSON

Wednesday, July 20, 2-4 p.m.

Workshops FOR SENIORS

Creative Aging: Poetry Writing IN-PERSON

Monday, July 11 and 18, 2-4 p.m.

In this Creative Aging Poetry class, participants will have the opportunity to put their poetry muscle to work in a safe, creative, and supportive community. Participants will read, write, and share poetry throughout the 8 weeks. The class will focus on four elements of a poem: imagination, music, story and structure. By using wordplay exercises, prompts, and reading a range of poetry styles, students will hone their poetry skills and begin to see the world through the eyes of a poet.

Space is limited to 20 participants. Due to the popularity and to gain the most out of this program, we expect all participants to commit to all sessions in this 8-week course. Register online on our website.

Somerville-Cambridge Elder Services IN-PERSON

Thursday, July 21, 2:30-3:15 p.m.

📍 Collins Branch

Learn more about resources in our community that support well-being. Presented by Somerville-Cambridge Elder Services, this discussion will feature an overview of programs offered by this non-profit, followed by Q&A with Senior Elder Care Advisor Dana Beguerie.
