

Latino History and Culture in Cambridge

Cambridge Historical Commission
831 Massachusetts Avenue
Cambridge, MA 02139

Provenance: Donated Professor Deborah Pacini-Hernandez

Dates: 1973-2016 (bulk, 2001-2004)

Extent: ½ linear foot

Reference created by: Meta Partenheimer, February 2017

Location: CHC Library

Access: Materials are available for research under the CHC rules of use

Related Materials: CHC Library collection of Tufts University anthropology course papers

Description:

The bulk of these materials consist of primary and photocopied research for the anthropology courses “Peace and Justice Studies” and “Urban Borderlands” taught by Professor Deborah Pacini-Hernandez at Tufts University, Medford, Massachusetts. Included are original and photocopies news clippings regarding the Latino community in Cambridge, as well as historical data on Cambridge neighborhoods and residents. Also included is a MapQuest copy of a Cambridge walking tour.

Folder list:

Notes and historical articles

Cambridge census, data, and maps

Legal service letters

Newspapers and clippings on Cambridge Latino community

Descriptions of homes, layouts, and maps

Interview transcriptions

Background material on Cambridge Oral History Project

“The Central American Refugee Experience and the Sanctuary Movement in Cambridge, Massachusetts”
by Juliette Yu-Ming Lizeray

“Social Movement Organizations and the Salvadoran Community in Greater Boston: Working for Justice and Peace” by David Pistrang”

Packet of photographs and negatives from the personal collection of Leslie Colon (sports, festivals, and social events)

Return to CHC Collections home:

<http://www.cambridgema.gov/historic/researchaids/archivalcollections>