@ Fresh Pond Reservation
all events are free & open to the public!

Friday
February 2nd
10am to 11am

Nature Storytime with Cambridge Public Library

Meets at Country Kitchen [lower level], Neville Place, 650 Concord Ave.

Join us on the first Friday of each month this winter as we welcome Cambridge Public Library's Children's librarian Margaret Macri for nature story time at Fresh Pond! We will read about winter and what humans and wildlife do during this time. Bring warm clothes and go for a winter walk after story time is over! In the event of tight parking The Fayerweather Street School has kindly offered us the use of their parking. Please feel free to contact Catherine Pedemonti at friendsoffreshpond@yahoo.com to RSVP or for parking information.

Sunday
February 4th
1pm to 2:30pm

Watershed in Winter

Meets at the Maynard Ecology Center, Neville Place, 650 Concord Ave.

This month's look at water: what's going on with watershed in the winter? It's more complex than you learned in school. Come update your water awareness with other adults in a fun activity-based program led by your watershed rangers, Jean and Tim. For directions to the Maynard Ecology Center or to RSVP, please contact Ranger Jean (508) 562-7605 or email jrogers@cambridgeMA.gov

Wednesday
February 7th
7pm to 8:30pm

The Beautiful Adaptations of Native Plants

Meets at the Cambridge Public Library, 449 Broadway St.

This is a part of a lecture series, "Evenings with Experts," presented by Grow Native Massachusetts. Dan Segal, founder of the Ithaca Native Plant Symposium, will talk about native plants' fascinating mechanisms for survival and the origins of New England flora's adaptive traits. This talk is co-sponsored by the Friends of Fresh Pond Reservation.

Friday
February 9th
10:30am to 11:30am

Seasonal Walkabout @ Lusitania Wet Meadow

Meets at the "meeting rocks" [where the meadow meets the main trail]

Come out for a seasonal walkabout with Ranger Jean at the Lusitania Wet Meadow. We will monitor wildlife by sign, track or presence, and make note of weather, state of plants, condition of water and other abiotic resources. You can help chart the seasonal changes of some of our most active wildlife spots, or simply come to enjoy the walk. Come dressed to be outdoors for the hour. All knowledge levels welcome. We will be walking off-path.

To RSVP, please contact Ranger Jean at (508) 562-7605 or email jrogers@cambridgeMA.gov

Sunday
February 11th
10:30am to Noon

The Disciplines of Animal Tracking

Meets at the Ranger Station (under the clock tower), 250 Fresh Pond Parkway

Ever wonder about the tracks you see? Animal tracking contains a lot more than just footprints. This guided walk will go over the various aspects of arguably one of the oldest human traditions. Join Ranger Tim as we observe the hidden streets of Cambridge and read the stories written in the earth. Open to all audiences. Proper footwear encouraged, we will be walking off-path.

Fresh Air Walk: Love in the Animal Kingdom

This casual walk, led by Ranger Tim, will encompass Fresh Pond and take an informal look at each month in nature. In honor of Valentine's Day, we'll talk about animal courtship on our way around the pond. Come alone or bring your co-workers! Rain or shine. Questions? Contact: tpuopolo@cambridgeMA.gov

Sunday
February 18th
1pm to 2pm

Sweet Maples

Meets at the Ranger Station (under the clock tower), 250 Fresh Pond Parkway
What trees in Massachusetts can be tapped? How long has this craft existed? Why are trees sweet? These questions and more will be answered inside and during a guided walk to Kingsley Park and a live tapping demonstration. Come learn about the lifeblood of New England! We will be walking off-path. To RSVP, please contact Ranger Jean at (508) 562-7605 or email jrogers@cambridgeMA.gov
