

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE • EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Robert W. Healy, City Manager

Richard C. Rossi, Deputy City Manager

November 5, 2012

To The Honorable, the City Council:

I am transmitting the results of the bi-annual Citizens Opinion Survey for 2012. The survey methodology is a statistically valid random telephone survey of residents. I am also enclosing a separate compilation of results that aggregates the percentage of responses of "Good or Excellent." I include "Don't Know" or "Never" if those responses are greater than 10%.

The results should be very encouraging to City Councillors, Department Heads and City Staff. Results indicate that Cambridge citizens today are more positive about nearly all aspects of their city government than ever before. The data show all-time highs in positive ratings for: the overall performance of city government (75%); the overall quality of life in Cambridge (94%); and the quality of Cambridge Public Schools (65%). In fact, the excellent rating for Cambridge schools has jumped 8 points since 2010, going from 15% to 23%, with combined good/excellent Education ratings jumping by 25 points.

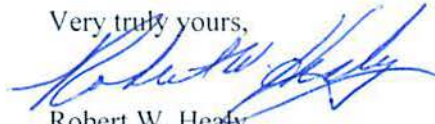

Question 1 – "the most important issue facing Cambridge today," remains Education. The percentage ranking for this number 1 concern has increased by 1%, from 13% in September 2010 to 14% in 2012. Concern about Education is followed by concerns for the economy (9%), crime (8%) and affordable housing (8%). This is similar to the results in 2010, though in earlier surveys housing issues were more prominent. The percentage of citizens citing taxes as the most important continues to dwindle and is now at 2%.

The highest increases in the Good/Excellent categories, in addition to Education are:

Quality of Schools	+25
Economic Development	+17
As a Place to Retire	+16
City Gov't/Overall Performance	+15
Access to Affordable Housing	+15
Place to Raise a Child	+15
Air Quality	+14
Job Opportunities	+11
Balance of Construction/Neighborhoods	+11
Ability to Get Around Town	+8
Overall Appearance	+8
Race Welcoming	+7
As A Place to Live	+7
Open Space/Recreation	+6
Overall Quality of Life	+6
A Safe Place to Live	+6
Sense of Community	+6

I would be pleased to further discuss these results.

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Healy
City Manager

MEMORANDUM

TO: The City of Cambridge
FR: Opinion Dynamics Corporation
RE: Analysis of 2012 telephone survey data

This memo summarizes the results from a telephone survey conducted by Opinion Dynamics for the City of Cambridge. The survey was conducted September 4-14, 2012, with 400 Cambridge residents aged 18 and older. The overall sample yields a margin of error of ± 4.9 percent at the mid-range of the 95% confidence interval. That is, when conducting 100 such surveys, 95 of them will produce results that fall, at worst, 4.9 points on either side of a given percentage. A hard copy of the survey was distributed at various locations throughout the city, and an online survey option was available at the City's website. Results of both of these alternate methodologies appear under separate cover. What follows is a summary of the key findings, along with trended findings from earlier surveys for the city conducted in 2000, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2008, and 2010.

Executive Summary—The Bottom Line

The results from this survey indicate that Cambridge citizens are today more positive about nearly all aspects of their city government than ever before. These data show all-time highs in positive ratings for: the overall performance of city government (75%); the overall quality of life in Cambridge (94%); and the quality of Cambridge Public Schools (65%). In fact, the excellent rating for Cambridge schools has jumped 8 points since 2010, going from 15% to 23%. Despite being in the middle of a recession, Cambridge citizens give glowing positive ratings to economic development, with 76% now viewing this aspect of this the city positively. A little over half (55%) are satisfied with their overall interactions with the City of Cambridge, which is similar to the 53% recorded in 2010.

Of 22 city characteristics tested, 18 have shown improvement since 2010, while only 3 have fallen. The drops came in ‘opportunities to attend cultural events’, ‘cable television’ and ‘open space and recreation opportunities’. Also, while we saw improvements in positive ratings for access to affordable housing, a majority still assigns negative ratings on this issue. Usage of city libraries, city buses, and neighborhood parks have all risen over the last two years. Among 21 municipal attributes services tested, 17 saw their excellent ratings rise, and only two saw those ratings decline. ‘Parking and traffic regulation’ and ‘ease of private car travel’ were the only two areas that dipped. Almost all citizens (91%) say they have used the Internet over 26 times in the last year, while satisfaction with web-based transaction with the City has gone up again.

All in all, these data show a dramatic improvement in citizen attitudes toward the City of Cambridge, almost completely across the board. While our past surveys have always shown steady progress, this 2012 study has shown dramatic improvement.

Summary of Findings

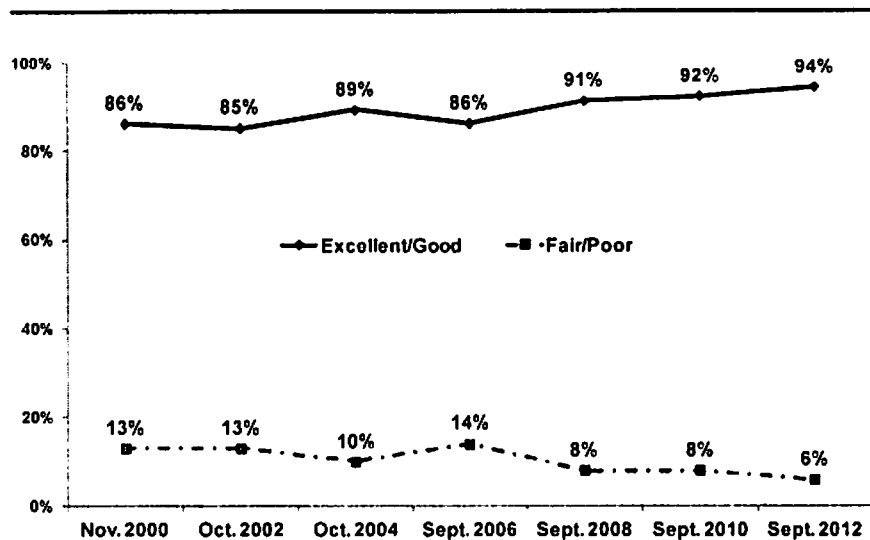

Education, the economy, and crime dominate the list of the most important issues facing Cambridge residents in 2012, which is similar to results in 2010, though in earlier surveys housing issues were more prominent. Fourteen percent cite education as the most important issue facing Cambridge, followed by the economy (9%), and crime (8%). The percentage of citizens citing taxes as the most important continues to dwindle and is now at 2%.

In the last 12 months, about how many times, if ever, have you or another household member done the following:
Rode a bus within the city

In the last 12 months, about how many times, if ever, have you or another household member done the following:
Visited a neighborhood city or park

A majority of respondents use the Internet. Ninety-one percent have used the Internet over 26 times in the last year, compared with 4% who have never used it, and 4% who have used it 2-12 times.

In the last 12 months, about how many times, if ever, have you or another household member done the following:
Used the Internet

Fifty-six percent have used the Internet to conduct financial transactions with the city; this is a small increase from the 52% who did the same in 2010. Satisfaction with the process is now at 53%, which is up a bit from 47% in both 2008 and 2010.

Have you ever used the Internet to complete financial transactions with the city of Cambridge, like paying parking tickets, paying tax bills, and registering for various city programs? IF YES: Would you say you were very satisfied with the experience, somewhat satisfied, not very satisfied, or not satisfied at all?

Almost three-quarters (74%) use the Internet as their preferred source of information for city services, up from 60% in 2010. Twenty-seven percent use the phone or phonebook, and 13% go to City Hall or offices in person.

When you need information or assistance with city-related issues or services, how do you go about seeking it?

Internet/City of Cambridge website	74%
Phone/phone book	27

(Refused)	-

Of the 21 municipal services we tested for performance, excellent ratings improved for 17 since the last reading in 2010, while excellent ratings dropped for two, and stayed the same for one.

Areas where excellent ratings have improved include: recycling (+16); water and sewer (+11); fire department services (+10); police department services (+9); library services (+9); animal control (+9); children and youth services (+9); schools and education (+9); city parks and park maintenance (+8); ease of public transportation (+8); street maintenance (+7); garbage collection (+5); planning and zoning (+4); recreational programs and facilities (+3); senior services (+3); health and hospitals (+3); and sidewalk maintenance (+2). Public information has the same excellent rating as last year. Instead of snow removal, residents were asked about snow plowing, so no movement could be measured for this year.

Decreases in excellent ratings were seen for parking and traffic regulation (-7) and ease of private car travel (-2).

Satisfaction with interactions with the City of Cambridge continues its slow climb at 55%. Twenty-nine percent are neither satisfied nor dissatisfied, and 9% are dissatisfied.

On a scale of 1 to 5, where 1 means totally dissatisfied, 3 means neither satisfied nor dissatisfied, and 5 means totally satisfied, how would you rate your overall experience when interacting with city government?

The full trended survey data is attached as Appendix A.
