IV. ACTION AGENDA

Old Business

Municipal Election

Commissioner Ward provided an overview of the process of processing the ballots for the Municipal Election including City Council, School Committee and the three ballot questions. He informed those in attendance that the ballots were being processed and results reviewed for consistency with regard to ballots cast and other measures. He informed those present that results would be provided as soon as possible for each race. He informed those present that preliminary, unofficial results for the ballot questions were available at this time.

Commissioner Marquardt read the preliminary, unofficial results for the three ballot questions (attached) indicating that the yes votes exceeded the no votes for each of the three questions on the ballot. Commissioner Marquardt informed those present that auxiliary, overseas absentee, mail-in ballots not able to be delivered to the polls and provisional ballots still had to be counted and would be starting Wednesday, November 3, 2021.
