Navigate the Holidays as a Solo Ager VIRTUAL

Tuesday, November 8, 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Planning ahead is one of the best ways for solo agers to live a dynamic life. Maximizing our connections with others is always helpful, especially as we approach the holiday season. Despite our best efforts and intentions, it may be that we are left to our own devices in taking pleasure during this time of year. Throughout our discussion we will identify useful approaches for solo agers to navigate the ups and downs of the holiday season.

Presented by Ailene Gerhardt, in partnership with Cambridge Neighbors, and sponsored by the Cambridge Public Library Foundation
