Financial fraud can happen to anyone. The best way we can protect ourselves from fraud is to learn exactly how it takes place. Join us for an interactive fraud awareness workshop discussing the way scammers attempt to victimize elders and how to make sure our information is safe.

This workshop is presented in collaboration with Cambridge Savings Bank. Registration is required.

Estate Planning for All VIRTUAL
Tuesday, December 6, 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

The Cambridge Public Library and the Legal Services Center of Harvard Law School are excited to offer Estate Planning for All. Estate plans can help you prepare for unexpected changes, offer a sense of security in uncertain times, and ensure that your wishes will be carried out if you become ill, incapacitated, or die unexpectedly. Everyone—regardless of background or financial situation—can have an estate plan.

Get started on your estate plan by joining us for our Estate Planning Webinar, where you can learn more about the basics of estate planning—including wills, health care proxies, powers of attorney, medical directives, and funeral/memorial planning. Attendees can also receive a free, one-on-one consultation.

Estate planning issues specific to veterans and individuals with disabilities will also be discussed.

Thursday, December 1, 4-5 p.m.

Thursday, December 8, 4-5 p.m.

Wednesday, December 28, 4-5 p.m.

It's time to scan all those photographs that have been collecting dust in the basement, closet, and attic. Invite friends and bring your albums and something to eat and drink—it's a photo-scanning party!

As you share your special memories, we will help you to digitize your pictures (and documents, too). This way you can preserve them or share them online or even reprint them. You will have the peace of mind that those memories and moments won't disappear.

To participate, you will need your photos and a USB drive (4GB or more recommended) or any hard drive. Registration is required.

Welcome to the state-of-the-art makerspace located at the Main Library! It is a hub for STEAM learning, creativity, and community collaboration in Cambridge. Its mission is to provide free, hands-on learning opportunities to the Cambridge community, resources for personal projects, and to serve as a hub for skill sharing and creative collaboration.

The Hive is open to individuals with a Minuteman library card. The space is designed for independent use for patrons ages 12 and up and supervised use for children under the age of 12.
